This Order memorializes the Court's rulings as announced into the record at the conclusion of the hearing. This Order does not limit the rulings as announced into the record from the bench. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

The Motions to Compel (Dkt. Nos. 120, 133, 134) are GRANTED-IN-PART to the extent of the parties' agreement as announced into the record. Such stipulated agreement is ADOPTED by the Court and is considered an enforceable order of the Court.

Additionally, Defendant shall complete all agreed production by Friday, February 14, 2020, at 12:00 p.m. PST. By this date and time, Defendant shall also produce profitability and other financial data related to its GeoSurf data center proxy service.

Defendant shall serve its election of non-infringing alternatives by Monday, February 10, 2020, at 12:00 p.m. PST. If Defendant elects the GeoSurf data center proxy service as a non-infringing alternative, it shall comply with all discovery requests that form the basis of the Motions to Compel related to such service by Friday, February 14, 2020, at 12:00 p.m. PST.

The depositions of certain witnesses originally noticed to be taken outside of the United States shall occur at the offices of Plaintiff's counsel located in the Washington, D.C. metro area.

The Motion to Extend (Dkt. No. 125) is GRANTED, and the Court considers Defendant's response referenced therein to be timely filed.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 4th day of February, 2020.
